

175 years of Grand Hotel Kronenhof

This year, Grand Hotel Kronenhof, one of the most architecturally important hotels in the Alps, turns 175. We are thrilled and honoured to commemorate this momentous anniversary of the Engadin's Grande Dame - and we invite you to celebrate with us!

Let us take you on an emotional journey through time from the founding year of 1848 to the present. Discover exciting moments in our fluid past while being immersed in bygone eras.

Yet history is still alive at Kronenhof - you can feel it with all your senses - and we are so proud to share this rich cultural heritage with you. Stay tuned!

Speaking of sharing... Do you happen to have any «historical» pictures showing your personal experiences of Kronenhof or those of your parents or grandparents? If so, we'd love it if you would enrich our social media channels and become a true part of our anniversary!

Festive Anniversary Weekend

The Kronenhof anniversary party will take place over a long weekend, from 31 August to 3 September 2023.

Expect a combination of the illustrious highlights from times gone by, festivities of the modern age and an entertaining party with a view to the future. Surrounded by great company, revel in a weekend you will remember fondly for years to come.

Time-honoured spaces reimagined

In recent years, large areas of Grand Hotel Kronenhof have been revitalised under the motto: Modern luxury in historic rooms.

This year, French interior designer Pierre-Yves Rochon lends his masterful hand to the Kronenhof Suite - our most expansive suite with a stunning view of the Roseg Valley.

In total, 10 renovated rooms and suites will provide stylish new accommodation just in time for the start of the summer season.

Living splendour of yesteryear

The Neo-Baroque architecture, elegant rooms and suites, atmospheric salons, extravagant Kronenhof Spa and outstanding restaurants make our listed property one of the finest luxury and wellness hotels in the world.

Reserve your dream room today - we will certainly be delighted to advise you personally.

Kronenhof Summer Lounge

Our tip for true connoisseurs:

«When the warm afternoon sun bathes the Kronenhof garden in soft light, it's the perfect time to relax in the Kronenhof Summer Lounge. Why not order a cocktail and soak up the Alpine panorama? It's simply heavenly.»

Active summer moments

Escape the urban summer heat in an elegant setting 1,800 metres above sea level. Hike in the footsteps of Alpine pioneers, be refreshed in idyllic mountain lakes and savour the outstanding cuisine at the Kronenhof. The Engadin mountain summer is diverse, healthy and leaves visitors with unforgettable impressions of our unique mountain world.

A season undiscovered autumn in the Engadin

Autumn in Pontresina is a very special time full of lightness, serenity and tranquillity. The richly hued mountain forests and magical changing light of the Engadin are just waiting to be hiked and discovered.

Those who prefer to put their feet up can unwind in the opulent Kronenhof Spa and enjoy an array of relaxing treatments. Welcome to the secret season for those in the know!

The hotel is now open continuously from 23 June 2023 to 1 April 2024.

Jazz festival in the wine cellar

One of the most acclaimed events of its kind in Europe, Festival da Jazz has been attracting a wealth of international artists and music fans since 2005. This year, the intimate, much-loved event will be held in a variety of small and medium local venues from 6 to 31 July.

Did you know..? The earliest concerts in the festival's history were hosted in Grand Hotel Kronenhof's legendary wine cellar. In keeping with tradition, we are delighted to once again set the stage for some extraordinary musical moments.
